

Wimbledon Items

News, Aug. 21—Dr. Whitney, the veterinary from Courtenay, was a visitor to Wimbledon today, professionally. He recently ordered a new Ford auto from our hardware merchant, J. A. Peterson.

Miss Fannie Parks of Page and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jewell of Fargo, are visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Parks. Mr. Jewell is a brother of Mrs. Parks.

Mrs. A. M. Hewson went to Minneapolis Monday morning to stay a few days and meet Mr. Hewson upon his return from a visit to Canada. They returned to Wimbledon this morning.

Dr. Wanner was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Wright Wednesday to attend their youngest child who nearly severed one of his fingers while playing with a hatchet.

The first load of new wheat was hauled to Wimbledon Thursday. Art Swartwout, agent at the Minnekota elevator, was the buyer. The grain was from the Sperner farm south of Courtenay, graded No. 1 Northern and sold for $1.00 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hilborn arrived Thursday evening from Berlin, Ont., and will visit relatives here for several weeks. Mr. Hilborn is a nephew of "Grandpa" Hilborn here. The visitors are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cox.

Russel Evans, who has had charge of the books at More Bros. for some months past, left Wednesday for Jamestown where he will visit friends for a few days, after which he will leave to attend the University of Wisconsin for a term.