

Wimbledon Items

News, Nov. 20—Geo. Tucker of Courtenay was a business visitor here Thursday.

J. R. Clauson who has been spending a few days at Miles City has returned well pleased with the prospect in that part of the country.

R. A. More who has spent a week looking after business interests in Dickenson and Miles City returned home Wednesday morning. He reported Dr. and Mrs. Simmons as being nicely located and enjoying their new home.

George Oglesby returned Thursday from the Hunters Hot Springs, Mont., being called home on account of the death of his father. George reports his son somewhat improved under the treatment at the springs, but unable to walk as yet.

Rev. Father Bierens was pleasantly surprised this week by a visit of his brother Jan, whom he had not seen in 13 years. Dr. Jan Bierens has extensively traveled for years. He spent several years in the Dutch East Indies, lived in Singaport, visited China and Japan and finished his studies in dentistry in Philadelphia and New York.