

George Young has returned from the Canadian northwest where he had been for some time attending to his farming interests. He closed out his land there and cleaned up a nice little sum of money on the transaction.