

Mrs. M. Green of Jamestown died at her home on Tuesday morning of this week after an illness of six weeks. She was an old and highly respected resident of the county, an active member of the Baptist church at Jamestown and will be missed by her large number of friends.