

you can't lose. Stouard Drug Co.

Mrs. H. A. Hilborn of Leal died on Friday and the funeral was held on Sunday. She was returning from an eastern trip when she was taken sick and it was discovered that she was suffering from cancer of the liver. The funeral was held from the M. E. church at Leal on Sunday afternoon and the services were conducted by Rev. Hewson of Wimbledon. The Hilborn's are old timers in this part of the state and are well known to a number in this community.
