

A Sad Death

Little Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jennings, living six miles south of Courtenay, met with a horrible death on Monday. Early in the morning she undertook to start a fire in the gasoline stove that she might prepare breakfast and the flames set fire to her clothes and she literally burned to death. It seems that there was no one in the room at the time. She lingered in great agony until about two o'clock in the afternoon when she was relieved by death. On Tuesday afternoon the remains were laid to rest in the Courtenay cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by the Rev. M. S. Riddle who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family.
