

Gone To Her Rest

Mrs. L. Martin passed to the great beyond on Monday at the home of her haughter, Mrs. Chas. Voght, where she had been stopping for some time. She had been an invalid for several months due to cancer and was a patient sufferer until death came to her relief. She was born in Maine in 1853 and was 53 years of age. Her husband died several years ago and since that time she has been living with her children and stopped with Mrs. Voght two years ago. Besides Mrs. Voght she leaves four children, Miss Georgia Lufkin, who makes her home with Mrs. Voght, and three sons, one living at Thief River Falls and one at Perth, N. D., and the other in Canada.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church in Courtenay on Wednesday the services being conducted by the Rev. M. S. Riddle, and the remains were laid to rest in the Courtenay cemetery, being followed to their last resting place by a large number of friends of the family.
