

once.

The year and a half old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scoville of Williston died on Easter Sunday from a clot of blood on the brain caused by an abscess from teething. The little fellow suffered a great deal and finally succumbed. Mr. and Mrs. Scoville have the sympathy of their many friends in this community.