

LUNDEEN-ANDERSON

ERNEST LUNDEEN AND MISS GEORGIA ANDERSON WERE MARRIED AT JAMESTOWN ON TUESDAY OF THIS WEEK.

Tuesday of this week was the scene of a quiet wedding at Jamestown when Ernest Lundeen and Miss Georgia Anderson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Green of that city performing the ceremony.

These are young people that need no introduction to the people of this section of the country as they are well and favorably known. Mr. Lundeen has been in the employ of his brother for several years and has satisfied the needs of a great many customers in Lundeen's large department store. Miss Anderson has conducted a restaurant for C. E. Raney for some time and has won the admiration of the bachelor and transi-~~ent~~ element of the town on account of the excellent spreads prepared and the courteous treatment extended.

They returned to Courtenay the same evening of the wedding and on Wednesday evening they gave a dance at the opera house which was attended by a large number of their friends and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed.

They have gone to housekeeping north of the track amid the well wishes of a host of friends.
