

A HAPPY WEDDING

GEORGE B. MARSALEK AND MISS FRANCES RUDNICK WERE MARRIED ON MONDAY AND THE CEREMONY IS FITTINGLY CELEBRATED.

George B. Marsalek and Miss Frances Rudnick went to Jamestown on Sunday where they were married in the Catholic church on Monday morning by the Rev. Father Lee and Mass was afterwards said for them. The bride was attended by the Misses Eva Sabinash and Josie Fisher and the groom was attended by his brother, John Marsalek, and Martin Fisher. After Mass the party started for Courtenay in the groom's automobile and arrived about two o'clock in the afternoon where an elaborate wedding feast awaited them at the home of the bride and to which a large number of guests had been invited. All made merry at the home until about four o'clock when they went to Larson's opera house and began dancing. In the evening a large number assembled at the opera house and the dancing was continued all night and on Tuesday the bridal party and a few relatives engaged in dancing the greater part of the day at the family residence.

The bride, who is the oldest daughter of Mr. Louis Rudnick, was attired in a dress of handsome silk chiffon trimmed with white lace and was crowned with a wreath of orange blossoms and wore a long white veil and carried a green fan. She is a young lady who has grown to womanhood here in Courtenay and has made many intimate friends among her associates.

The groom is one of the young and prosperous business men of the Village of Courtenay having been engaged in the photograph business for a number of years and is also interested in farming in the vicinity, being the proprietor of a farm a short distance west of town. The young couple will go to housekeeping in the house where the bride has resided for some time and which was deeded to her by her father as a wedding present.
