

H. J. Mastin, one of Stutsman county's well known and popular farmers, has stolen a march on his acquaintances in North Dakota and at the same time has taken unto himself a bride. Cards have been received announcing the wedding of Mr. Mastin and Violetta H. Wade of Cadillac, Mich., at that place, July 6th. It is understood that Mrs. Mastin is a sister of Mrs. Charles Mastin. The newly married couple will arrive in Jamestown about the 16th inst., and have engaged rooms for their occupancy.—Alert
