

REID-WEBSTER

R. H. REID AND MRS. WEBSTER
WERE MARRIED AT THE HOME
OF THE BRIDE NEAR SANBORN
LAST THURSDAY.

Hamilton Reid sprung a surprise on his friends here last Thursday by going off quietly and getting married and it was not until the next day that even his own relatives knew of the rash move he had made. It was generally supposed that Hamilton, like some of his brothers, was a confirmed old bachelor, but with the foresight and prudence which is characteristic of him as a man, he realized that he was in the wrong channel and he decided to change his course, which he did. For several years he has been leading a life of solitude and washing the dishes and sweeping the floor regularly, but he has now departed from that stage and his friends rejoice with him in his good fortune.

He was married to Mrs. Webster at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Brimer, near Sanborn, on Thursday, March 21, at 11 o'clock in the presence of a few relatives and friends. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Reid came to Courtenay the same evening.

Mrs. Reid is well known to a large number of people here and is a lady of high standing wherever she is known and the people of Courtenay will welcome her to their midst.

Mr. Reid is one of the old timers in this part of the country and is known as a hard working, industrious young man without a bad habit, one who attends strictly to business and who has been richly rewarded for the efforts he has put forth to build up a home.

The people here join with the Gazette in extending felicitations.
