

W. J. Whitford returned Tuesday evening from Fargo where he had spent several days visiting friends. Rumor has it that Billy was married while in that city and the fact that he brought a young lady back with him almost persuades the people of Courtenay that the rumor may have some foundation in fact.