

Andrew Christianson of Clotho, Minn., has purchased the Strong livery barn and has already taken possession. Mr. Strong has come into possession of a farm in the deal and will move to Long Prairie, Minn., in a short time where he will work the land. Mr. Christianson is the father of Walt Christianson who has been in this part of the country for some time and is well known. Walt is in charge of the barn at the present time.