

Mrs. J. E. Clark returned on Thursday from Devils Lake where she had been with their little boy whom she placed in the school for the deaf and dumb. The little fellow has had difficulty with both his speech and hearing but it is hoped that he will improve as he grows older and will eventually have full use of both these organs.

Paul Hughes suffered a rather