

NORWEGIAN LUTHERAN CHURCH DEDICATED

The Norwegian Lutheran Church was Dedicated on Sunday Last with Appropriate Services Which Were Largely Attended

Norwegian Lutheran Church, Courtenay

The Norwegian Lutheran church of Courtenay was dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Sunday with appropriate exercises. There were six ministers present for the occasion and they all took some part in the services. They were, Prof. Bogstad of Concordia College at Moorhead, Minn., Rev. Quam of Sheyenne, Rev. Silness, Rev. Eidsvig, Rev. Tronsdahl and Rev. Dybvik, pastor of the church.

In the morning at 10:30 there was the laying of the corner stone conducted by Rev. Silness and this was followed by the dedication service in which all the ministers participated.

In the afternoon there was another service when the following program was carried out:

Choir, "Sun of My Soul."

Solo, "Den Store Hvide Thok," Mrs. Scott.

Scripture Reading, Rev. Silness.

Choir, Rock of Ages.

Sermon by Rev. Bogstad.

Solo, "The Holy City" Mrs. Dybvik.

In the evening there was speaking by the visiting ministers in both English and Norwegian and singing by the choir and a duet by M. H. Hanson and Miss Hattie Halverson and a solo by Mr. Hanson.

All of these services were largely attended and much interest manifested.

The accompanying half tone is a very good likeness of the church building. It was erected last summer at a cost of about $3,800 and has a seating capacity of about 150. It is furnished with a nice pulpit and comfortable seats, the latter being set on a slightly raised floor, the furniture and wood work being finished in golden oak and presenting a very handsome appearance.
