

J. B. Durkee, his sister, Pattie, and Mrs. Durkee and daughter spent the day in the city yesterday on a business and social trip. The little 6-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durkee came near losing an eye recently in a fight with a big rooster. The rooster flew at the baby as he would at a feathered antagonist, and struck the child strong blows in the face with his wings and feet. One of the blows left a bruise near the eye and a badly swollen optic. The rooster had to be killed.—Alert.
