

C. W. Eagle returned the latter part of last week from Valley City where he had been since the first of the year. Mrs. Eagle is in St. John's hospital at Fargo where she was operated on about the first of the month for appendicitis and other troubles. She is getting along well and will probably be able to come home in a short time.

---