

It is said that Miss Bertha Englebretson, who has been making Courtenay her home for some time, made things rather interesting for a fellow at Kensal a few days ago by throwing him bodily through the window and otherwise shaking him up. The fellow was afterwards arrested by a Soo detective for stealing coal from the Soo. It is certainly an unlucky time for that fellow.