

Peter Haas has returned from the coast country, where he spent several weeks. He purchased 72 acres of land about 150 miles south of San Francisco for $9,000. He likes the looks of that country pretty well and will move out there to live this winter. Mr. Haas has made a lot of money farming in North Dakota and is now in a position to take life a little easier.