

The people of Courtenay heard with regret the report that Charles Hayes had the misfortune to lose his barn and horses by fire. He went from here to his claim in the western part of the county only a few weeks ago to get ready to go to farming but a prairie fire has left him in rather bad shape.

Ed. L. Tish was arrested on