

Roy Hopwood had the misfortune to break his left arm in three places on Thursday of last week. He had been in the employ of Prader & VonAlmen and was in the act of getting a chunk of ice out of the ice house when the tongs slipped and he fell backwards out of the door and the ice fell on top of him.

Dr. Thompson had a house in