

George Johnston has been elected Master Workman of the Workman lodge to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Dave Anderson. George ought to make a good man for the place and no doubt will discharge the duties of the office with credit to himself and benefit to the cause of the order.