

Kensal Items

Journal, August 8—Miss Lizzie Caven went to Courtenay Monday evening, where she will take charge of the local telephone exchange. The best wishes of her numerous friends goes with her.

E. R. Cram, who for the past eight or ten months has had charge of the Soo Depot here, has resigned his position and left together with his family, for Minneapolis Monday morning.

T. R. Clemo, accompanied by J. C. Ashley and Wm. Armstrong, went out to his claim in the western part of the county yesterday and will remain for a few days, watching the flax grow.

Dr. W. E. Longstreth was compelled to go to the hospital at Valley City again last Saturday. He was so disabled with rheumatism that he had to be carried to the depot in a chair. A. L. Cattleberry accompanied him.

The Kensal ball club has now disbanded and the outside players, viz: Serrin (Shorty,) Reed (Nasty,) and Adams, (Doc,) have left for other fields. They all expect to join an all-star team, that will make a tour through Minnesota before the season is over.

George House, who is at the hospital in Valley City, is reported to be very low with typhoid pneumonia. Mrs. House was called to his bedside and went down on Tuesday morning and yesterday Harry was called, and he together with his wife went down last night. A report this morning gives it out that very little hopes are entertained for his recovery.
