

Kensal Items

[From the Journal]

Andrew Thompson and Tony Neva went to Fargo Sunday evening to look after business matters.

Mrs. J. Nichols left last Thursday evening for Minneapolis and other Minneasota points where she will remain for some time visiting friends and incidentally look after a few business matters for John.

At a recent meeting of the board of education Prof. J. S. Carr and Misses Breen and Anderson were reelected for the next year to the respective positions held last year. Miss Walters who did not apply for the next year will be succeeded by Miss Nalwik a successful and experienced teacher from the state of Wisconsin.