

KENSAL ITEMS

The car shortage is being felt at Kensal. Most of the elevators are full and cars are very hard to get.

Journal, Oct. 4— Harry Hyland's condition does not appear to be improved, and he is gradually growing weaker.

E. R. Cram is the name of the new agent for the Soo company. He comes to Kensal well recommended as a competent man.

Mrs. John Peterson, who lives west of town, was taken to the Valley City hospital by Dr. Longstreth the first of the week. She underwent an operation and is on the road to complete recovery.

L. C. Lane the telephone man, is building a new house on the lots north of the Watson home. The foundation is nearly completed and the house will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

When it became known Thursday that some one had relieved Rev. Stinson of an overcoat the business men got together and bought a nice fur-lined coat and presented it to him. The gift is fully appreciated by Rev. Stinson.

The chicken pie supper at the M. E. church given by the Ladies' Aid was a decided success. There was an abundance of good things to eat and everybody reported a good time, especially the "Aid" who says the receipts were nearly $40.00.