Journal, Oct. 10—Thos. Welch and family have moved into the property formerly occupied by W. H. Welch.

Postmaster Thompson left this week on an extended business trip east. He will visit Chicago, Buffalo and other points ere he returns.

One of the farmers in this vicinity reports having shipped a carload of barley that brought him $1210. Pretty good for the farmer.

Mrs. Albert Hanson entertained a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon. It was the occasion of her 61st birthday. A pleasant time is reported.

A. K. Drew, father of G. P. Drew, is visiting George for a few days before he returns to his home in Iowa. Mr. Drew, Sr., has been on an extended trip through the northwest during the past summer.

Sheriff Nelson was down from Carrington the first of the week looking after business interests. He captured a bank robber the other day and placed him in an all stell cell, and with this precaution the thief managed to fly his kite last Sunday. Sheriff Jim was out of town when the safe blower made his get-away.

Joseph Hanna, who has been acting as assistant agent at the depot for some time past, this week accepted an offer from the Davidson Bank syndicate, and will leave tomorrow for Carrington where he will place himself under the tender mercies of Supt. Miller. We speak for Joe a successful career and rapid promotion in his chosen vocation.
