

Kensal Items

Journal, Sept. 12—Some unknown party has been passing counterfeit half dollars in Kensal—a good imitation of the genuine.

Mrs. Jake Nichols and sister, Miss Ohlum, went to Minneapolis on Tuesday evening for a few days sight seeing.

George McKenzie came up from Jamestown Saturday and visited with friends a few days hunting and looking after crop interests.

John Harris raised 47 bushels of barley to the acre on a fifteen acre field, which was marketed at the local elevator at 75 cents a bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Knud Christian- sen are rejoicing over the arrival of a nine and a half pound girl baby which arrived at their home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richmond and baby were arrivals on Saturday evening from Jamestown. They spent Sunday with friends, and George went hunting a good bag of game.

T. B. Anderson, of West Branch, Iowa, is visiting with his cousin, Anton Pederson, and other relatives. Mr. Anderson was a former resident of this city, and may before leaving for his home invest in some land, as he says things look good to him around Kensal.
