

Kensal Items

Journal, Sept. 19—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Holmes died Monday morning of summer complaint.

Tuesday the safe of the Farmers Mercantile company was taken from the ruins of the late fire and the contents were found to be undamaged.

Last Sunday's Minneapolis Tribune prints a picture of the Kensal girls' baseball team—the team was composed of the Misses Emma Johnson, Did Caven, Irma Croonquist, Ida Waller, Georgia Feckler, Laura Pearson and Bertha Wanderpool.

Mr. Peterson, of the Peterson hardware store, has removed what goods was saved from the into the Smith building, north of the telephone exchange, and as soon as the insurance and other matters have been adjusted he will resume business again.

The stock saved from the fire which destroyed the Holmes drug store has been removed to the old Swartz building, and the stock and fixtures have been sold to Jud E. Williams and John Nihill, who will resume the business as the Kensal Drug company as soon as they take account of stock and the insurance is adjusted.
