

Kensal News.

From the Journal.

Carl Watson and Earnest West spent Easter with Courtenay friends.

Mary Nogosek is clerking in the Paulsen & Sletton Mercantile Co.'s store.

The Croonquist young people attended the dance at Courtenay Monday night.

Harry Melrose started Monday for Minneapolis. Mrs. Melrose will join him there and they will go to England. They expect to be back about June 1st.

The social held at the country home of D. S. Greenen Tuesday evening was a very pleasant social event. The baskets were sold at auction. Billy Welsh was the auctioneer. Every one present reports a splendid time. Proceeds $23.

The telephone people are making arrangements to move from H. A. Stinson & Co.'s store to the building north of the Journal office. The new quarters have been recently re-arranged and as soon as additional wiring is done the transfer will take place.

The baseball boys met Tuesday evening and organized for the season of 1906. The following officers were elected: Wm. Welsh, manager; C. W. McDonnell, captain; Glenn Farrar, treasurer, and George Nelson, official "umps." The players will commence practicing at once and Kensal is assured of a strong team this year.
