Journal, May 9—M. Aggola, from out west of the lake reports the finding and capture of a she wolf with her nest containing 8 little ones. The bounty received by Mr. Aggola amounts to a neat little sum.

A large bunch of surveying stakes was unloaded at the depot the first of the week. This must surely indicate that there will be some surveying done in this vicinity the coming summer.

The authorities, with Justice Tufford in the lead, are waging a war on drunkenness and rowdiness, and will hereafter gather in and prosecute all offenders in such cases. Last week there were six arrests made for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, all of whom plead guilty to the offense as charged and paid their fines.

While breaking a horse to drive single last Friday Geo. Barnum barely escaped serious injury, as the horse became frightened and unmanageable, and in his attempts to quiet the animal Mr. Barnum was thrown to the ground with such violence that he was rendered unconscious for several minutes, but fortunately, with the exception of a few scratches, escaped uninjured.

A few of Kensal's chess enthusiasts forgathered at the home of L. C. Lane, our "hello" manager, on Tuesday evening, and enjoyed a pleasant time in an endeavor to checkmate. Mrs. L. brought the exhausted mental powers of the competitors back to their normal condition by a timely application of coffee and cake modified with ice cream. A Chess club is in the process of formation.

A farewell reception was given in the I. O. O. F. last evening in honor of our townsman, W. G. Tubbs, who leaves shortly for the twin cities where he will make his future home. The spacious hall was filled to its utmost capacity, as almost the entire population of the town was there to pay respects to the departed friend and neighbor. The evening was pleasantly spent with cards and dancing and light refreshments were served. The hall was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and everyone there reports an enjoyable time.

News, May 10—Pete Altringer is the proud papa of a ten pound boy born Monday.

Dr. Wanner reports a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. James Renwick, Monday.

Rev. John Neil Robertson of Hannaford occupied the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday. He preached two thoughtful and earnest sermons to good sized audiences.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reuter and they have arrived at Mountain Home, Idaho, where they are enjoying the climate and surroundings. They will probably remain there for some time.

Arrangements were made last week whereby Arthur Swartwout sold his livery business to Charley and Frank Walks. The new proprietors have taken possession and are doing a nice business. The boys are hustlers and ought to get their share of the business. We have not as yet learned what Mr. Swartwout intends doing in the future but in all probability he will continue to make his home here.

Wonderful Eczema Cure

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Stoddard Drug Co. 50c.
