

Kensal Items

Journal, Oct. 3—Mac. Armstrong has returned home from Crystal where he has been buying grain.

Otto Peterson and Mrs. Mary Anderson of Suring, Wis., were married at Carrington last Wednesday.

F. Cass Ward, the grocery peddler who has been selling the farmers here this summer, has bought a threshing outfit and gone to work six miles east of town.

Miss Echo Hunt of Carrington was in Kensal today taking subscriptions for the Minneapolis Tribune. She is working for a prize and was very successful here.

Claude Shaffer, the oldest son of Mrs. L. M. Schaffer, visited his mother a few days last week and then returned to Chatfield, Minn., where he is employed in telephone line construction.

Carl Erickson one of our oldest pioneers spent Wednesday night in town waiting for blacksmith work. Carl has been in our midst twenty-one years and is one of our prosperous farmers.