

Kensal News.

From the Journal.

Miss Gladys Thompson came home today from St. Paul, where she has been attending a business college.

The corps of teachers for the coming year have all been hired. They are: Prof. Carr, principal; Agnes E. Breen, intermediate; Hulda C. Anderson, primary.

Kensal has been long on sensations during the past week, but with the coming of a policeman it is expected that things will assume their normal condition.

The tinhorn gamblers appear to have struck Kensal in droves. Things will be getting so strong that it may be necessary to have a clean up. A word to the wise, etc.

Mrs Mickelson, accompanied by Dr. Longstreth, went down to the Platou hospital at Valley City Monday and underwent an operation. At the last reports she is doing nicely.

Several times during the last few days men have been heard to use profane and obscene language on the streets in the presence of ladies and children. This can be eliminated by instructing the marshal to arrest every drunk found on the streets.

Fred Paulson and Anton Feckler were at Wimbledon Saturday. Coming home they exceeded the speed limit with disastrous results. The wind was knocked out of their tires and they came home limping along on their rims.

J. D. Christie, who has been suffering for some time with some hip affection, was taken to the hospital at Valley City Wednesday night. Mr. Christie has a family depending on him for support and it is hoped that he will not be long confined to his bed.
