

Frank Krampa was taken suddenly sick yesterday and for a time was in intense agony as the result of a rupture. He was handling potatoes at the time and although the work was not heavy it seems that he had been ruptured before and this brought it on again. He was taken to Dr. Macdonald's office immediately and the rupture was soon replaced and he was resting easier.