

Murder Suspected

The Fargo Call says that Mrs. J. J. Merry, wife of the man who was found dead in a hotel at Medina, believes her husband was murdered. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that he came to his death by the discharge of a revolver in his own hands whether by accident or otherwise not known. An investigation is being made to get additional light on the case. The Call says that Mr. Merry had not been drinking, as far as the relatives could learn, before the fatal shot. The body was found propped up in bed with pillows,
