

Alfred Olson, who taught the Bemis school the past school year, intends to leave shortly for Wisconsin where he contemplates a university course. Mr. Olson will be much missed in this vicinity. Well, when the roses bloom again, we will see you for you can't stay away.