

Pleasant View Notes

The H. N. Tucker Co. are putting up a new house on the Hayes place.

Plowing is all done in this vicinity and everybody is drawing grain and our friends in town are happy.

Chris Nelson has bought the Berg place. This makes Christ a little farm of seven quarters. He seems to believe in expansion.

Mike Kirkeby has his new residence about completed on his farm. It is a beautiful residence and Mike can take comfort with the best of them.

There has been no services in the Free Methodist church for some time. What is the matter with Rev. Fred Kline? Wake up Fred and get into action.

Christ Oleson has rented his farm to Henry Larson and will live in Courtenay. Christ seems to be following the procession of retired farmers. Who will be next?

We are informed that J. D. Deskins has sold his farm and will move to Florida. Mr. Deskins is a progressive farmer and will be much missed in this vicinity.

W. W. Bemis and wife made a business trip to Valley City on Wednesday. Mr. Bemis has bought a fine residence in the city and his family will reside there in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Bond were in Courtenay on Friday laying in their winter's supplies. It would seem by that that Ned does not intend to live on love altogether. Good luck to you Ned.

George Oleson expects to start for Norway about the first of December to visit his parents. He dont expect to be back before next spring (that is if he don't get drowned going over.) Here's a good time, George, and a bon voyage.

Elmer Soli went to visit the old home in Wisconsin on Friday. Elmer likes North Dakota so well that he don't think he can put in more than a month or six weeks before he will be back. Elmer knows a good thing when he sees it.
