

One of John Posey's teams made things rather lively on Main street for a short time on Monday. They began to run away from the south side of the barn and ran up the street at a lively pace notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Posey's man had one of them by the bit and was exerting every effort to stop their progress. Their running excited other teams and for a time things were rather lively. Not much damage was done.

---