

thing that you want.

Joe Prodzinski had the misfortune to break one of his legs while returning from Courtenay last Saturday evening. He is getting along as well as possible but it will take some time before he will be able to walk.