

Tommy Rois had his arm broken while playing on the school ground last Thursday. Some radiators had been left standing outside and the little fellow happened to pull one of them over and it fell on him breaking his arm in two places.