

Alfred Satre was on the sick list the first of the week and was threatened with typhoid fever but Dr. Sansing took him in charge and he is now much improved.