

Charles B. Still and family left on Tuesday of last week for Lambertsville, N. J., where they will make their future home. Mr. Still has been a resident of Griggs county for the past twenty years and has gathered a competency that is commensurate with the labor expended and will enable him to take life a little easier in the future. The Gazette joins with their many friends in wishing them a prosperous future in their new field.