

Frank Sullivan was up from Wimbledon on Monday calling on friends. Frank has sold his barber business at Wimbledon and will give possession Nov. 1. He expects to spend the winter at his old home in Missouri and will then go to the western part of this state in the spring to engage in business.