

C. J. Syvertson returned this morning from Rochester, Minn., where he and John went a week or ten days ago. John had an operation performed for the relief of some stomach trouble and it is expected that he will be able to come home in three or four days.