

Joe Thiering was up from Jamestown the first of the week carrying his left arm in a sling. The bone in the wrist was broken as the result of a fall on a defective sidewalk in Jamestown three or four weeks ago and it will be some time before he is able to use it.