

About thirty of the people of Courtenay planned a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tucker last Friday and drove out to their home in the evening, where the time was pleasantly spent until after midnight. There were five tables of progressive euchre and the game was much enjoyed by the players. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker are delightful entertainers. Amusement was provided for all and all were made to enjoy the occasion. Refreshments were