

Wimbledon Items

News, April 26—Henry Etter and bride recently arrived from Wausau, Wis., to make their home here. Mr. Etter is receiving the congratulations of his many friends upon his recent marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Joos are happy over the arrival of a bright baby boy born Tuesday. Mother and child are getting along nicely and W. G. remembered the boys with an after-dinner smoke.

A subscription list is being circulated to raise funds for the support of a ball team here this season. Citizens are contributing liberally and Wimbledon will have a team on the diamond that will make good.

Clemance Rotering left Sunday evening for Fountain City, Wis., in response to a message telling of the death of his father. The deceased had been failing in health for some time and his death was not unexpected. He was a father of Mrs. Fred Rebhahn of this place.

Dr. C. E. Simmons attended a meeting of the Central Racing Circuit at Courtenay Thursday evening as a delegate from the local association. He says there never were brighter prospects for a successful meet than at this time. Secretary Tucker's desk is piled high with entries and correspondence regarding the races. Some of the fastest horses that ever came to the state will be entered on this circuit this season. The dates for the Wimbledon races are July 30, 31; Aug. 1.