

Wimbledon Items

News, August 9—Dr. Wanner reports five cases of diphtheria in the country several miles north of Wimbledon.

Miss Thompson of Kensal, daughter of Postmaster Thompson at that place, has accepted a position as stenographer at the Merchants State Bank here.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Haughton and the children returned Saturday morning from Fargo where they were in attendance at the fair for a few days. George says the fair was a hummer.

D. B. Berlin left Sunday evening for Rochester, Minn., to visit his family for a few days. Miss Geraldine's condition remains about the same and the physicians there advise taking her to another climate, as soon as she is well enough to be moved.

Charley Lilley moves about these days via the cane route, as a result of having a tussle with a mowing machine recently, in which Charley came out second best. Dr. Wanner repaired the injured parts but it will be some time before Charley will be able to tackle any kind of heavy work.

S. J. Russell, J. M. Collard and F. E. Smith have started in the blooded stock business. They recently purchased nine head of cattle from Harry Tucker's herd north of Courtenay. They are the Red Polls and said to be the finest in the state, having won prizes at a number of fairs held over the state this year.