

man counties. On Wednesday afternoon the contest went to Stutsman county and the Barnes county boys strengthened their ranks for the contest on Thursday but all to no avail, the Stutsman county giants pulled them over the line in a walk.

Wimbledon Items

News, Friday, August 2—Mrs. Geo. Hatch and two children are visiting at the home of A. Luther at Fargo this week.

The Misses Janet and Margaret Sandy of Fargo are guests of friends here this week.

Dr. Caldwell reports a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed James Monday.

Attorney Parks is still confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism, but is slowly recovering under the care of Dr. Wanner.

D. R. Swartwout returned this week from New York state after a visit of several weeks at his old home. "Col." reports having had a very enjoyable trip and met many comrades that he had not seen in years.

Elmer Clausen of Brinsmade and Editor Billy Francis of the Ruso Record arrived Wednesday and are spending a few days at Spiritwood lake with a party of friends from here.

Albert Spaehler returned Tuesday morning from Rochester, Minn., where he had been for several days consulting physicians. He says he is feeling much better and thinks the treatment will help him.

W. O. Joos and Jack Knecht went to Minneapolis Thursday taking with them C. P. Coleman who has not been in good health of late, his mind being affected. He will be treated at a hospital in that city and his friends here hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. K. L. Glidden is here from Mandan this week looking after her hotel interests here. Mr. Freligh, who has been in charge for several months, has quit the business and Mrs. Glidden will probably lease or sell the property as soon as possible.

Kensal Items

Journal, August 1—Postmaster Thompson has been operating the tow mill the last two weeks, turning out a couple of carloads of tow which he is loading for shipment to eastern markets.

A Yoeman Lodge is now assured for Kensal. Mr. Riley, the organizer has been very successful in getting a large number of desirable applications and a strong organization is looked for.

Mrs. John Caven went to Jamestown last Saturday, returning Monday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Anderson and children, all of whom will remain for a few weeks to enjoy life in the country.

Geo. House went to Valley City this morning where he will enter the hospital for treatment. He has been having difficulty with his stomach and has had but little rest for several days.

Strawberries by Bushel

The Ellendale, N. D. Leader says, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker went over on the east side of the James River at Ludden last week and brought home three bushels of wild strawberries. The berries were so thick, says Mr. Baker, that in driving along, the rich red juice splashed on the side of the buggy wheels. The berries are exceptionally fine flavored.

Leave your laundry with us or telephone us and we will come and get it. Basket leaves every Tuesday and returns Friday. First class work.—Prader & VonAlmen.