

Wimbledon Items

News, July 19—Mrs. Dr. Caldwell and Miss Adeline Mead are visiting relatives in the northern part of the state this week.

The Misses Lizzie and Josie Hemp are here from Valley City and will spend their summer vacation at the farm home north of town.

Geo. H. Simpson and W. T. Simpson are attending the K. P. grand lodge meeting at Grand Forks this week, representing the local lodge.

Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Hewson left today for New Rockford where they will be guests of Rev. S. F. Beer and friends for several weeks.

Mrs. M. L. Feckler has been on the sick list this week for a few days, but Dr. Wanner reports her much improved, which is pleasing to her many friends.

Among those who have returned to their homes here after a week's outing at Spiritwood lake are: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pierce and daughter Bella, C. M. Kribbs and family, J. A. Peterson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Rossman. All report a delightful time.

Lou Lilley says the men he has picked for the tug of war contest will pull Frank Dick's bunch over in the next township. And Frank Dick says if the rope don't break, his men will have Stutsman county delegation doing a merry-go-round stunt—and there you are.